NEWSFLASH!

Thursday 11th March

Dear Parent/Carers

I can't tell you how wonderful it is to walk around the school and see the classrooms full of smiling children! They definitely seem happy to be back with their friends and teaching staff.

Some of the teachers have said that their pupils are being quite chatty in class but that makes us smile - it is just so lovely to see them all reconnecting with their friends in real life!

I would like to thank you all for keeping socially distant at drop-off and pick-up times. I know that we don't have much space by the gate but with everyone's co-operation this seems to be running quite smoothly.

I'm sure that your children are shattered from getting back into the routine of school, so I think our INSET day tomorrow could not have come at a better time!

Keep safe and have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Maurice

Staff News

On Tuesday we shall be saying a sad goodbye to Mrs Mackay. Since Mrs Mackay joined us in 2013, she has been a dedicated and much valued member of staff. I know that she will be greatly missed by staff and pupils alike. We wish her and her family all the best as they relocate Up North!

This week Mrs Gawn joined the St. Peter's team as a Y3 Teaching Assistant in Sharks Class. Mrs Gawn brings a wealth of experience, having previously worked in a specialist SEN school as a teacher.

We have also welcomed Mrs Brixey as our new Midday Meal Supervisor working alongside Mrs Wharton in the hall at lunchtimes.

Contact details

Please remember to update your contact details with the office if you change your phone number or email address. We have a few incidences when the number we have on file no longer works!

Red Nose Day

Next Friday, 19th March is Comic Relief, Red Nose Day and children are invited to come into school wearing fancy dress, something red or a Comic Relief t-shirt. The usual buckets will be on the gate for any donations. Don't forget to pre-order your child's red nose, if they would like one, by logging into your ParentPay account. The noses will then be handed out at registration time. If you need a reminder of your ParentPay account details, then please contact the School Office.
